

Announcing GLOBAL 2007

- Without a successful GLOBAL 2005, there would be no GLOBAL 2007
- We can now officially declare this meeting a big success
- On behalf of the professional societies, I sincerely thank the organizers
- ANS has recognized the importance of our ties with AESJ and RRTD in particular

Announcing GLOBAL 2007

- The next GLOBAL conference will be in the United States
- ANS has selected Idaho as the site of the conference
- 3 locations are being considered
- Final location depends upon lodging, meeting space and transportation availability

Idaho Resources for GLOBAL 2007

- Full commitment of Idaho National Laboratory
- Idaho ANS Section has more than 600 members
- Experience with GLOBAL 1999
- Continuous presence on the international organizing committees since for at least 4 GLOBAL meetings

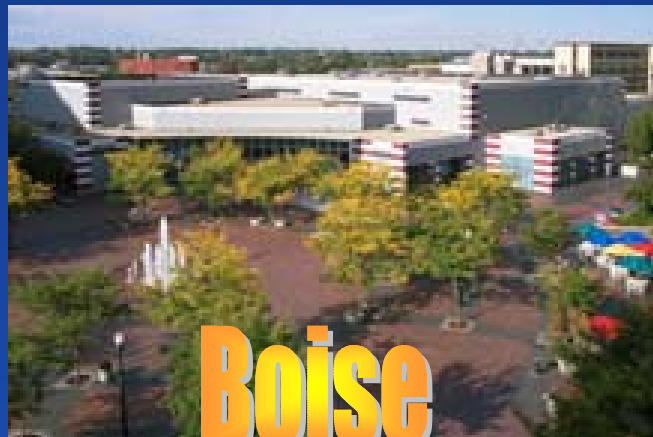

3 Cities under consideration

Coeur d'Alene

Sun Valley

Boise

Organization of GLOBAL 2007

- John Grossenbacher has agreed to be the General Chairman
 - Ensures the commitment of INL
- Several excellent candidates to lead the Technical Program Committee
 - The important thing is to ensure a strong international membership
- Chair of 2nd GLOBAL Cup competition
 - Mary Ellen McFarlane

2007 is an important year in many countries

- Susan Eisenhower reminded us of Atoms for Peace and the Geneva Conferences
- Our goal for the GLOBAL series should be that it becomes the focused successor to Geneva
 - Atoms for Prosperity—for the benefit of all humankind
